4. APPROVAL OF MINUTES

Commissioner Watson moved to approve the minutes as presented; Commissioner Reuther seconded. All in favor.

a. Past Meeting Minutes

5. VISITORS

None

6. NEW BUSINESS

No new business was discussed.

7. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

a. Update on Traffic Box Art and Review Additional Submissions

The previously selected carousel wrap art did not work out due to conflict of interest. Gesa Carousel agreed to sponsor a PUD box on their campus in 2025 with the artwork being discussed.

The commission needs art for the third box at Hildebrand intersection.

Commissioners were shown boxes with votes for discussion and final approval.

Commission Chair Kennedy moved place "Faces" (Artist #806) at Hildebrand Intersection. Commissioner Watson seconded. All in favor.

All commissioners approved of "Robot" art proof for Mustang Signs to move forward on the wrap.

8. BUDGET UPDATE

The wind sculpture approved at the November 2024 meeting was ordered and will be here before the end of the year.

Library PUD box is pending wrap based on weather - Should also be done by end of year.

Horse by the fairgrounds is also in the works.

Mustang was able to recreate the 10th/Washington box and sent over a proof.

Remaining budget: $6,027 with a few items still pending.

IDEAS FOR BUDGET REMAINDER:

There will be a few thousand dollars to potentially be rolled over. Staff will be working with the Finance Team to see if this is possible.

The commission discussed sponsoring Creating Arts Festival which can be added to the request to rollover.

Commissioner Watson noticed rust in the Synergy art piece at the base.

There is a potential fund for maintenance out of the Three Rivers Community Foundation Money. Staff will look into this.

9. CONCLUSION

Meeting adjourned at 6:40pm
